FOUNDED 1906

Fifty years old! Eastern was fifty years old, March 21, of this year. Eastern has come a long way since Governor Beckham signed the bill creating Eastern in 1906. Since then, many years have come and gone, many students, many graduates, and many leaders have passed through Eastern's portals.

Eastern has changed immensely in fifty years as has everything else. The campus scene has changed from stockings and ankle-length skirts to bermuda shorts and knee socks, from horse-drawn buggies to yellow convertibles. Many changes have taken place, but Eastern's goals have not changed. She still wants to train the best teachers and to give her students the best education as is possible. Eastern was founded to alleviate the teacher shortage, and she is still trying to solve this problem. Kentucky needed teachers in 1906—Kentucky needs teachers in 1956.

As we turn through these pages and recapture our memories of this year, let us remember the students who in former years have recalled similar experiences at dear old Eastern.

MILESTONE ————— '56

A friendly, courteous, hard-working man, and an excellent teacher, Dr. Harvey H. LaFuze is loved and respected by his students and fellow faculty members. Since coming to Eastern in 1939, he has given many hours to furthering Eastern and her program. As head of the Biology Department, he is recognized as an outstanding administrator. He has devoted many hours to sponsoring various campus organizations. The Wesley Foundation, the Methodist youth group on campus, was founded by him in the 1940's. The success of the Photo Club and the Milestone is, to a great extent, dependent on the advice and counsel he gives to these organizations. These are but a few of the reasons why Dr. LaFuze is so deserving of the honor which has been bestowed upon him.

Dr. LaFuze — the senior class, the student body, the faculty, and most of all, we the Milestone staff, salute you!

DEDICATION

A native of Indiana, Dr. LaFuze received his A.B. degree from DePauw University, and his M.S. and Ph.D. degrees from the State University of Iowa. Aside from his many campus activities, he still finds time to be an active member of his church and the local civic organizations.

His hobbies of photography, the study of native trees, and gardening are important to him, but he enjoys them more with his wife and two daughters around to make some suggestions and give advice.

A landmark on our campus is the University Building, a classic architectural structure, which was constructed in 1874 and was part of the campus of the old Central University.

FAMILIAR BUILDINGS

The James W. Cammack Building was named for a man who was on the first Board of Regents, and who faithfully served Eastern until his death in 1939.

The Raark Building was built in 1909 and was named in honor of Ruric Nevel Raark, Eastern's founder and first president.

The Weaver Health Building accelerated the Health and Physical Education program upon its completion in 1931. It was named for Charles F. Weaver, who served as a member of the Board of Regents from 1920-1932.

These familiar, beloved buildings where we as freshmen wander aimlessly and gradually grow into seniors, going purposefully on our way, are an important part of the Eastern we will remember.

Cammack, Raark, Coates, Hiram Brock — familiar names? Surely! We all recognize these names, but few of us realize that these are more than names of buildings, they were men who gave of their time and talents so that Eastern might prosper and grow. The ones who came after have tried to honor them for the great part they have played in Eastern's history.

The Thomas Jackson Coates Administration Building was named in honor of Eastern's third president, who served from 1916-1928. The Hiram Brock Auditorium, which is annexed to this building was named for Senator Hiram Brock, who was a member of the Board of Regents.

SHINY, NEW CLASSROOMS

The Fitzpatrick Arts Building, which houses the Arts, Home Economics and Industrial Arts Departments, was named in honor of the Honorable H. D. Fitzpatrick, who was a member of the Board of Regents.

The new buildings, the modern classrooms, the construction work are all signs that Eastern is growing. Eastern is still growing — gradually increasing in enrollment and services. Under Dr. Herman L. Donovan, Eastern's fourth president, we adopted the slogan, "Eastern is a friendly college." As she continues to grow, may she never lose this "Friendliness" which is such an important part of her.

The Science Building, completed in 1953, houses some of the most modern and efficient laboratories in the nation. It is dedicated to Eastern's sons who lost their lives in World War II.

This sketch of the Music Building now under construction is only one example of how Eastern is expanding her present program. This modern building is due to be completed in the spring of 1957.

HOMES AWAY

Memorial Hall, the oldest dormitory on campus, derived its name from a building which was a part of the old Central University plant.

Sullivan Hall was named for Jere Sullivan, who helped establish Eastern and was the first local regent. The freshmen girls occupy this recently re-made dormitory.

Bull sessions, midnight snacks, surprise birthday parties for the roommate, card games, surprise fire drills, and last but not least, studying are all part of life in the dorms we call home. Some are ancient, some modern; but all, comfortable. We will always be grateful for the friends we met while living here these four short years.

Burnam Hall was named for Judge A. R. Burnam, who helped secure for Eastern her first significant appropriation.

FROM HOME

Playful children, barking dogs, baby carriages, and play pens are a sure sign that you are on that part of the campus known as Vet's Village. This has been the home of the married students since World War II. These temporary structures are soon to be replaced with modern apartments.

Three of the men's dorms, Beckham, McCreary, and Miller, were named for men who contributed to Eastern's founding. Beckham was named for J. C. Beckham, who was governor when Eastern was established. McCreary was named for James B. McCreary, who was also governor of the state, and a leading citizen of Richmond. Miller was named for Robert W. Miller, who introduced into the General Assembly the bill establishing Eastern.

Keith Hall, one of the most modern dormitories in the South, was named in honor of Charles A. Keith, retired Dean of Men, and the late Anna Roe Keith, who served Eastern for more than forty years.

LIFE BEGINS . . .

Another young, fresh, anxious freshman arrives, eager to get started on her college career. She meets her counselor, who helps her decide what she would like to strive toward in her college years. After she has taken a battery of tests, struggled through endless lines, faced closed classes, and changed schedules; she can be considered a college co-ed.

WORKING . . .

After this bewildering Freshmen Week, the freshmen and the upperclassmen settle down to the routine of labs, lectures, notes, tests, and studying.

STUDYING . . .

The P. E. classes break the "manatany" of lectures and help keep us trim.

P. E. classes, formal and informal dances, gab fests in the Student Union Building, or strolls on the campus with that "certain fellow" are a few of our campus activities that we will long remember.

Ray seems to be giving "Tiny" piano lessons while no one is around.

PLAYING . . .

Steady couples are an accepted and expected tradition on Eastern's campus. Here we see Jayce and "Cotton" chatting at a formal dance in Walnut Hall.

DATING . . .

WORSHIPPING . . .

Worshipping in church, cathedral, synagogue, or temple; attending devotions or fellowship meetings are important phases in the development of a well-rounded moral, intellectual, and spiritual individual. These qualities are evident in our leaders who are Eastern's hope, joy, and bulwark. Captain in R.O.T.C., president of the Y. M., and captain of the swim team; Bob Snavelly is an example of a leader in both church and campus life.

. . . LEADING

Students getting together for weekly assembly sense the spirit of what Eastern is and what Eastern has been. The weekly Wednesday morning assemblies, the special assemblies to honor our outstanding athletes, and — the most memorable assembly of our college career — the Founder's Day program reveal to us what Eastern has done in the past, and how many men have labored to make her the leader in education that she is today.

And now as we seniors prepare to enter the world to follow our chosen professions, may we always remember our loyal friends, our many big thrills, and the few small disappointments, and most of all, cherish what our "friendly Eastern" has meant to us in our four short years on her beautiful bluegrass campus.

BUT NOT ENDING, JUST COMMENCING

ADMINIS

In Eastern's fifty years she has had the privilege of having many fine leaders and administrators. The past and present members of the Board of Regents have worked diligently for Eastern and her best interests. If it were not for these loyal men, Eastern would not have advanced as far in the field of education as she has. Her five presidents, Ruric Nevel Raark, 1906-1909; John Grant Crabbe, 1910-1916; Thomas Jackson Coates, 1916-1928; Herman Lee Donovan, 1928-1941; William Francis O'Donnell, 1941 —, have been outstanding educators both in Kentucky and in the nation.

Under the leadership of these fine men Eastern has advanced rapidly. With their eyes on the future as well as the present; our leaders today are preparing for the rapid growth in the years to come—the enrollment steadily increases, more classrooms are needed, more dormitories are needed — they are built and before they are finished they are inadequate. This growth is normal, but we hope as Eastern continues to grow that she does not lose her oneness and friendliness that we will always cherish.

Chairman

The Board of Regents is the governing body of the college. The Chairman of the Board is the State Superintendent of Public Instruction; and the other four members are appointed by the governor for four-year terms, but they may succeed themselves. Eastern has been fortunate in having men on the Board who were keenly interested in her welfare and who have worked to further her program in these fruitful fifty years.

The members of the present board are Robert R. Martin, Frankfort, Superintendent of Public Instruction; Keen Johnson, Richmond, former governor and now vice-president and a member of the Board of Directors of Reynolds Metals Company; Cecil C. Sanders, state senator and leading citizen of Lancaster; W. E. Blackburn, vice-chairman of the Board and mayor of Pikeville; and A. C. Jones, banker and civic leader of Harlan.

BOARD OF REGENTS

CECIL C. SANDERS

W. E. BLACKBURN
Vice Chairman

A. C. JONES

W. F. O'DONNELL

A friend to every student, a lively interest in all that is Eastern, a diligent worker, and a very capable leader, President W. F. O'Donnell has endeared himself to all. He will be foremost in our minds as we remember our college days. During his years at Eastern, she, through his efforts, and the efforts of others, has risen to a position of national prominence.

PRESIDENT

President and Mrs. O'Donnell are loved by each Eastern student. Their home is always open to any student who wishes to talk with them. Mrs. O'Donnell is a charming hostess, and we will remember the teas and receptions she gives for our benefit. The shy, awkward freshman to the sophisticated senior feels at ease when this lovely lady entertains. These occasions and this beloved couple will remain in our special college memories.

W. J. MOORE
Dean of the College

A grin, a joke, a funny story are all Dean Moore's trademarks. Always ready to help straighten out confusing contracts or snagged schedules, he will be remembered by the students as one of their best friends while at Eastern.

THE DEANS LEAD . . .

Working unceasingly for the good of all girls, always willing to discuss a problem, striving to develop social poise and an intellectual attitude in the students, these are a few of the many good qualities Mrs. Case possesses.

EMMA Y. CASE
Dean of Women

QUENTIN B. KEEN
Dean of Men

Though new to our campus this year, Dean Keen has already won the respect and admiration of his boys. He will be remembered for his cheerful countenance and friendliness to all.

MELVIN E. MATTOX
Registrar

A friendly greeting, informed a college requirements, consoler to those that have "contract troubles," Melvin E. Mattox will be remembered for these sterling characteristics.

D. J. CARTY
Director of In-Service Education

What correspondence courses are offered? Where can I take this extension course? When do I register with the Placement Bureau? — these are questions that Mr. Carty is well-qualified to answer.

. . . AND THE STAFF HELPS

These charming, efficient secretaries behind the scenes should receive much of the credit for Eastern's progress. These familiar faces will long be remembered for their courtesy and friendliness.

Left to right: First row, Mrs. Rachel Duncan, secretary to the Director of In-Service Education; Lois Colley, secretary to the president; Mrs. Helen Perry, assistant to the Director of Personnel; Second row: Louise Braaddus, recorder in Registrar's office; Mrs. Bessie Griggs, information clerk; Carrie Potts, secretary to the Registrar; Mrs. Martha Barksdale, secretary to the Dean.

The dormitories function very efficiently under the leadership of Miss Wingo, assistant Dean of Women, Mrs. Inez Cloxan, housemother of Sullivan Hall, and not pictured, Mrs. L. A. Abrams, housing secretary for men's dormitories, and Mrs. Pauline Allen, housemother of Burnom Hall.

Though sometimes overwhelmed by invoices, orders, requisitions, and bills, Mr. Brock still manages in his efficient manner to keep the business affairs of the college in order.

G. M. BROCK
Business Agent

THE BUYING AND SELLING EXPERTS

Fred Ballou, Katherine Chenault, and Edith McIlvaine must be discussing some special problem that has arisen in managing the affairs of the Student Union Building.

Need someone to fix a broken steam pipe or shut off a stuck fire alarm? Just call on W. A. Ault, superintendent of buildings and grounds, or W. C. Farston, Jr., chief engineer—they will fix it in record time.

Mr. Brock's right-hand helpers—E. B. Noland, Aileen Wickersham, and E. P. McConnell, help keep the business affairs of the college running smoothly.

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

of the Lexington Alumni Club; and Mrs. Fannie Porter, representative-at-large. Mrs. Richards works endless hours keeping the Association functioning properly. Every effort is made to enlist new members and to keep in touch with all Eastern graduates. It is through her office that these officers are elected. Mrs. Richards will be the one who keeps Eastern alive to us after we graduate and scatter in many directions.

The Alumni Association provides a means for graduates to "keep in touch" with the happenings at Eastern. The Association sponsors Homecoming, the biggest event of the year, and gives an Alumni banquet at Commencement time with the graduating seniors, twenty-five and ten year classes as honored guests. Eastern numbers many distinguished men and women among its graduates — doctors, lawyers, and educators to mention a few.

Mrs. Frankie Deniston is the assistant secretary to the Alumni Association. She finds "lost" alumni, sees that the PROGRESS is mailed, and handles correspondence from hundreds of alumni.

'06

Great nations are built upon learning — and for fifty years Eastern has served faithfully this purpose. She has given unceasingly of her knowledge, that those who pass through her halls may take their rightful place in building homes . . . communities . . . nation. During these years, Eastern has proudly numbered among her graduates . . . teachers, doctors, lawyers, home-makers, ministers . . . men and women in all vocations and professions who have been influenced by having once been a part of Eastern. Our hope is that in the years to come her light of knowledge will continue shining brightly to guide the feet of those who are the future students of Eastern.

AGRICULTURE

William A. Stocker is the head of the agriculture department. He is an invaluable friend to all ag. majors, and is well-known by the remainder of the students for his sponsorship of the Y.M.C.A.

Jackson A. Taylor is an instructor in this department. Courses are offered in care of livestock, farm crops, and farm management.

These "early birds" are up early to milk the cows as a part of the dairying course. A two-year curriculum plan at Eastern leads to a degree in agriculture at the University of Kentucky.

Agriculture Club

This organization of agricultural students was formed in 127. The purpose of the club is to study diligently the economic and social problems that pertain to farming and to devise measures whereby the economic status of the farmer may be improved and his standard of living elevated. Activities include sponsoring a basketball team, presenting programs to local high school F.F.A. clubs, and showing movies on latest developments in agriculture to members. Officers are Tammy Mink, president; David Odar, vice-president; Harold Ballinger, secretary and treasurer.

Frederic P. Giles is in charge of Eastern's art program. Known to all, loved by all, Dr. Giles has enriched and broadened the lives of the many students who have taken his drawing and appreciation courses.

Dean Gatwood, Willard McHone, and Randolph Dozier are instructors of the many popular art courses.

ART

While Charles Williams watches, Betsy Stamper gives her painting its finishing touches. The Art Department offers courses in drawing, design, ceramics, color, and other requirements for an A.B. degree in Art.

Kappa Pi

The purposes of the Alpha Alpha Psi of Kappa Pi, a national art fraternity, are to promote interest among college students in art, to recognize potential and professional ability in art, to bring art departments of various colleges closer together through activities, and to know the work of other students through exhibits and the SKETCH BOOK which is the national society's journal. Officers are Randolph Dozier, president; Coral Melburg Kidd, secretary-treasurer; and Dr. Giles, sponsor.

H. H. Lofuze is head man in the Biology Department. His office is always clustered with students waiting to talk over a test or a problem, or a staff member talking over equipment, supplies, or students.

Dennis Rainey, William Saper, and A. L. Whitt teach the biological science courses, anatomy, physiology, and zoology courses.

BIOLOGY

Mitzi Mueller, Joy Kitson, and Teddy Hatfield in one of the many labs offered by the Biology Department. Courses are offered in botany, physiology, anatomy, and bacteriology and are taught in new, modern laboratories.

Biology Club

The Biology Club strives to stimulate individual and campus interest in biology and to promote friendship and the exchange of ideas among students. The club sponsors informative discussions about things of the living world. It also sponsors instructional and recreational outings. Officers are Joy Kitson, president; Charles Noble, vice-president; Daris Freudenberger, secretary.

Meredith J. Cox, head of the chemistry department, is well-known to many students. The high quality of work he requires of his students certainly helps them in their other courses while in college and in their careers after college.

Thomas C. Herndon is the other professor in the Chemistry Department. He instructs physical, quantitative, and qualitative chemistry courses, and physical science. Dr. Herndon is chairman of the Division of Science.

Thornton Lipscomb and David Eversole work on a chemistry experiment which will help them in the future as they go into teaching, research, or medicine. General chemistry is required of many students on the campus; and foods, organic, and physical chemistry are also offered.

CHEMISTRY

Caduceus Club

The Caduceus Club was organized in 1936 by Dr. J. D. Farris, who was at that time college physician at Eastern. It fosters premedical interest of students who are interested in medicine, pharmacy, medical technology, dentistry, and nursing. Informative lectures are given by doctors and occasionally medical films are shown. Officers are David Eversole, president; Bennett Asher, vice-president; Vernon Bundy, second vice-president; Billie Griffin, secretary and treasurer.

Alex McIlvaine, Edith G. Fard, James Peel, and R. R. Richards are instructors of accounting, economics, business English, and shorthand.

W. J. Moore, friend and confidant to all commerce majors, is head of the Commerce Department. Those who have been in his classes will always remember the jokes and stories he uses to stress an important point.

COMMERCE

Sigma Tau Pi

Sigma Tau Pi, or the Society of Commerce, has as its purpose to promote a feeling of unity and fellowship among its members, to aid the general welfare in the department of commerce, and to provide opportunities for social and educational growth. The officers are James R. Hisch, president; Ralph C. Hall, vice-president; Herma Lee Roberts, secretary; Narley L. Haley, treasurer.

Margaret Maberly, Anna Gill, and Kermit Patterson teach courses in shorthand, typing, advertising, and investments.

Future businessmen, such as Jim Hisch and Ralph Hall, are well-qualified for jobs as accountants, secretaries, or teachers through their work in the Eastern Commerce Department. Courses such as economics, salesmanship, business law, and marketing give the commercial student an over-all picture of the business world.

Pi Omega Pi

Pi Omega Pi is a national honorary fraternity for commercial teachers. The Alpha Beta chapter was organized in 1935 and was the first national honorary society at Eastern after they were authorized by the Board of Regents. It was established to create, encourage, promote, and extend interest in scholarship, and to foster high standards in business and professional life. A. G. McIlvaine is the advisor. This year's officers are Charles Ronald Smith, president; Bobby Lane, vice-president; Norma Moore, secretary; and Betty Lou Curetan, treasurer.

D. T. Ferrell is leading the Education Department on to greater planes of learning. As most of Eastern's students plan to teach, he and his department are very important to their program.

Fred A. Engle, Gladys Tyng, James Snowden, William Sprague, and Willis Parkhurst are the popular instructors of psychology and teacher preparation courses.

EDUCATION

Eastern's education department is one of the best in the nation. The undergraduate courses are required for a standard or provisional teaching certificate. Courses in school administration, supervision, and educational sociology lead to a Master's degree in education.

Kappa Delta Pi

Kappa Delta Pi is a national honorary fraternity to recognize outstanding students in the field of education. It encourages high professional, intellectual, and personal standards. Diano Miller is the president; Bettye Joyce Christian, vice-president; Shirley Dugger, secretary; and Ronald Smith, treasurer.

Future Teachers of America

Some of the activities of the Future Teachers are sponsoring American Education Week, getting high school students interested in teaching as a career, acquainting college students with KEA and NEA, and furthering teaching as a profession. The officers are Shirley Pettit, president; Joe Whitaker, vice-president; Suzanne Doyle, secretary; and Joan Dowson, treasurer.

J. Dorland Coates is the principal of Model High School. All future secondary teachers have the privilege of taking his Education 364 class or "observation" as it is known to most of us. This experience is of great value in helping us formulate our philosophy of education and of life.

Cara Lee, Ruby Rush, A. L. Wickersham, and Harold Rigby supervise student teachers on the secondary level at Madel High.

Helping the high school students are Athalene Cornett and Mary Ann Lear, no longer students, but teachers. This is twelve weeks' experience which is unequalled in the training of all prospective teachers.

SECONDARY EDUCATION

Virginia Adams, Alma Regenstein, Henry Bindel, and Ida Pearl Teater are supervising teachers at Madel High.

Henry G. Martin is the principal of the elementary training school. Though new to our campus this year, Dr. Martin has already proven himself a good teacher and administrator.

Germania Wingo, Ellen W. Pugh, Ann Alvis, Elizabeth Park, Mabel Jennings, and Mary B. Brittain are critic teachers in the training school in the first through six grades.

Eleanor Johnson is supervising the play period of several of the six-year olds. Teaching under the watchful eye of a well-trained critic teacher, we put our knowledge to practice.

ELEMENTARY EDUCATION

Mamie W. Scott is teacher at the rural demonstration school, well-known as the Little Red School House. Children from part of Madison County attend this little school which is associated with the college.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Jonet Murbach is in charge of the Foreign Language Department. Dr. Murbach not only teaches language, she teaches people. To understand the people's language, you must first understand the people is her belief.

The ability to speak French like a native Frenchman might well be the objective of Bettye Joyce Christian and Diana Miller. Other languages taught are Spanish, Latin, and German.

Sigma Lambda

Sigma Lambda has as its purpose to bring together, socially and intellectually the students of different foreign languages at Eastern. Rosalyn Russell is president of this club; Nellie Wholen, vice-president; and Rose Marie Rose, secretary-treasurer.

P. M. Grise is the head of the English Department. His dry wit, which makes his classes so interesting, has made him a favorite among the students.

Mary Barnhill, William L. Keene, Pearl Buchanan, and Saul Hanchell instruct courses in grammar, literature, and speech.

ENGLISH

Canterbury Club

The Canterbury Club was organized in 1924 as an honorary society for English majors. The club publishes a magazine of student writing called BELLES LETTRES, as its major project. Officers are Billie Sue Click, president; Jim Cheak, vice-president; Mary McCall, secretary; and Betty Thompson, treasurer. Dr. P. M. Grise is the club advisor.

Other faculty members of the English Department are John Lewis, Quentin Keen, Glen Wilson, Jr., Louise McIlvaine, and Elizabeth Kessler.

Play Rehearsal—There's no camera but plenty of action in the rehearsal scene from the production, JUNO AND THE PAYCOCK, given by the Little Theatre Club. Supplying the action are Frank Lamping, Nellie Whalen, and Jim Florer.

Improving their oratorical ability are the students in one of the speech classes. Other English courses offered are grammar, composition, literature, drama, and journalism.

L. G. Kenamer has contributed much to Eastern in his many years as head of the Geography Department. An entertaining speaker and an outstanding teacher, Dr. Kenamer is known and loved by all students.

Mary Frances Richards instructs courses in climatology and geography at different sections of the world.

GEOGRAPHY

Following up the talk of an assembly speaker by locating the conflict area of the Far East are Patti Poyma and Don Redford. Keeping up with current geographical affairs is of utmost importance.

Bill Marshall and Ed Martin know that maps and globes are very important in learning geography. Geography of all parts of the world are included in this field.

Gertrude Haad, Fred Darling, Glenn Presnell, John H. Cooper, and Laura E. Ellis are all popular instructors in this department.

Charles "Turkey" Hughes is the head of the Health and Physical Education Department. He is known throughout the state; and he is president of the Ohio Valley Conference Association, of which Eastern is a member.

HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Margie Elvove administers first aid to "victim" Ben Van Arsdale as the rest of the class "practice-up." First aid is one of the many courses in health and physical education activities taught in the department.

Health and Physical Education Club

The purposes of the club are to promote a better understanding in the field of Physical Education and create a feeling of fair play in everyday life. Major activities include the sponsoring of play night, square dances, picnics and Physical Education events which will promote team spirit. Officers are Roy Brackett, president; Juanita Whitaker, vice-president; Joan Mitchell, secretary; and Billy Butler, treasurer. The club is sponsored by Charles T. Hughes and John H. Cooper.

Kerney Adams, as head of the History Department, is a leading man at Eastern and in Kentucky. The students respect him for his fair and impartial judgment, both in and out of class.

Clyde Lewis, Robert G. Donaldson, Paul C. Nagel, and Virgil Burns instruct courses in world history, American history, government, and sociology.

HISTORY

History in the making can be witnessed by students by tape recording important events. Could be that Billy Butner and Rod Salisbury are replaying the President's state-of-the-union address, or are they discussing an unusual idea that was brought up in their philosophy course?

Historic Kentucky has a place of its own on Eastern's campus in the museum in the Science Building. Dr. J. T. Dorris, a retired faculty member, is in charge of the museum.

Willie Mass and Evelyn Slater teach courses in dress-making, personal relations, and family life.

Mary King Burrier is the gracious lady who heads the Home Economics Department. She takes a personal interest in all of her "girls."

Sitting in the living room of the Home Management House ready for church are Angie Peters, Wanda Lindon, and Biddie Worley. Living in the House is one of the senior year requirements of all Home Economics majors. It gives the girls a chance to put their knowledge to practice.

HOME ECONOMICS

Home Economics Club

The Home Economics Club tries to create a closer relationship among its members and the department. Activities such as formal dinners, picnics, educational meetings and many others help to develop the members personally and socially. Their officers are Doris Edwards, president; Carolyn Rivers, vice-president; Peggy Baker, secretary; and Betty Jane Hill, treasurer.

Thomas Myers, Willard E. Swinford, J. Hamer Davis, and John D. Rawlette are members of the Industrial Arts Department, teaching such courses as cabinet construction and mechanical drawing.

Ralph Wholin instills knowledge, co-operation, and ethical values in his boys. He administers the I. A. Department with tact and forcefulness.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Ronald Caffman and Wallace Napier inspect shop models they have made. The Industrial Arts Department includes work in wood, metal, leather, plastic, and drawing.

Industrial Arts Club

The Industrial Arts Club strives to promote interest in Industrial Arts and to develop a clearer understanding of its relation to education. To develop leadership among its members. Through close co-operation between students and faculty, the club aims to be instrumental in helping the department and college to solve problems. Officers are Pat Wallace, president; Robert Taylor, vice-president; Wallace Napier, secretary; and Bobby Reach, treasurer. Thomas E. Myers is the club sponsor.

Mary Floyd is the efficient, hard-working head librarian. She sees that the library always runs smoothly and is most interested that the students take advantage of our well-stocked library.

Mary Dickerson, Jamie D. Lamb, R. A. Edwards, May C. Hansen, Lester Miller, and Mrs. Guy Whitehead are the friendly assistants who will help you find any information you need for a research paper or report.

LIBRARY

Selecting books from the stacks for work on "that" term paper are Loretta Mayes, Sie Mills, and Jim Cheok.

Joe Moores looks for some important data in the encyclopedias which are located in the large reference room. Ann Hurst sits at one of the many study tables provided.

The other math instructors are Alvin McGlasson and Samuel Walker.

Smith Park, head of the Mathematics Department, amazes his students with his ability to solve perplexing problems. He is respected by all those who know him.

MATHEMATICS

Shirley Taylor and David Senn are trying hard to figure out this one. It takes long hours of work to conquer algebra, geometry, trigonometry, and calculus.

Math Club

The purpose of the Mathematics club is to increase interest in mathematics and to interpret to others the importance of and the benefits to be derived from the study of mathematics. The club's programs consist of guest faculty speakers as well as speakers from the club membership. The club's officers are Richard Norris, president; Shirley Taylor, vice-president; Bettye Joyce Christian, treasurer; and Wilma Aithy, secretary.

Lt. Colonel Alden O. Hatch heads the Military Science Department. He has served both in Europe and in Korea, and is well-qualified for any post.

Captain Paul E. Myers, assistant PMST, and Captain H. Margon, assistant PMST, instruct courses in military tactics and the mechanics of rifles and mortars.

MILITARY SCIENCE

Other instructors are M. Sgt. Dill A. Christian, Sfc. Henry V. Cantwell, M. Sgt. John Sublousky, Sgt. Michael J. Mucia, and M. Sgt. Raymond Royce.

Knights of Artillery

The Knights of Artillery was organized in 1952 to give the advanced members of the R.O.T.C. an association which would give them contact with one another in a military atmosphere and to promote an interest in and an appreciation of the R.O.T.C. Their main activity is the sponsoring of the Military Ball which is the biggest event of the year. Officers are Cadet Colonel Ronald L. Cuffman, president; Cadet Captain Ben F. Hard, first vice-president; Cadet Major Hubert D. Ramey, second vice-president; Cadet Captain William R. Murphy, secretary, and Cadet Captain Jack Adams, treasurer.

William Fitzsimmons, Brown E. Telford, Blanche SeEVERS, and Gordon Ritter are the members of the music faculty who teach classes in harmony, voice, and instrumental instruction.

James E. Van Puersem is known and liked by everyone on campus through his direction of the music programs that are presented each year.

MUSIC

Other members of the music faculty are Vasile Venettazzi, Frances McPherson, and Jane Campbell, who teach voice, piano, and music appreciation.

Music Club

The Music Club is to promote good will and fellowship among the musicians, to develop greater interest in the fine arts, to secure more privileges for the musicians at Eastern, and to offer more opportunities to these musicians. John Mayer is president of this group; John Largent, vice-president; Bonny Osborne, secretary; and Chuck Carly, treasurer. Mr. "Van" sponsors this group.

PHYSICS

Clifton Basye, instructor in the Physics Department, teaches such courses as wave motion and theory of sound and light.

Top scientists of America's future may be included in this picture—Richie Norris and Roger Alexander. Some subjects taught in physics are slide rule, mechanics, molecular physics, electricity, magnetism, and wave motion.

Physics Club

The Physics Club has as its purpose to promote the interest in physics and the related sciences on the campus and to better prepare the members for their jobs in this field after graduation. This year's officers are Thornton Lipscomb, president; Paul Perry, vice-president; and Loretta Mayes, secretary. Dr. Black is the sponsor of this club.

J. G. Black is the head of the Physics Department. Dr. Black is loved and respected by all of his students for his fine mind and flashing wit.

Eastern Kentucky State College

Richmond, Kentucky

The Board of Regents of the Eastern Kentucky State College in recommendation of the Faculty, has conferred upon who has completed the curriculum and fulfilled all the requirements therefor, the degree of

Bachelor of Science

with all the rights, privileges, and honors thereunto appertaining.

Witness my hand at Richmond, Kentucky, on the day of May 1906.

As we stand here — proudly — and reminisce on our past four years at Eastern, we think of all those who have gone before us — students who for fifty years have loved the walks on our campus — who have waked to a snow-blanketed ravine, or one roved in the brilliant colors of fall, and, on walking through, breathed the first crisp air — a new year beginning. For many, it is the first at Eastern — but for others who have known other years, every familiar sight brings back memories of last year — the year before — or "my freshman days." We take each step that leads us nearer to graduation with mingled pride and regret — never again will we know the carefree — yes, carefree — days of our college life. Yet — as we think of classes for fifty years who have felt the same, we smile with joy that many more will know the pleasure, the pride we have in being students — and graduates of Eastern.

Leaders today —
leaders tomorrow!

Bob Zweigart, as president, has lead our class through four wonderful, eventful years. Ronnie Sherard, vice-president; Bettye Joyce Christian, secretary; and David Senn, treasurer have also worked very hard through these years for our class and especially this year as our officers. Mrs. Blanche Seevers, as class advisor, has helped us over the rough spots in our college road.

SECOND SEMESTER SENIORS

Glenn Reynolds, Waynesburg.

The speaker's table—Vi, Ronnie, Mrs. Seevers, Mr. Hopp, Bob, Jackie, and Mitzi.

SENIOR FEAST

On February 25, 1956, the Senior Class journeyed to Lexington to the Campbell House for a banquet of fried chicken, etc. Dr. William Hopp, our class co-sponsor for three years, returned to Kentucky to be our guest speaker.

The fun, fellowship, and sentiment experienced will not soon be forgotten. The class presented Mrs. Seevers and Dr. Hopp with silver bowls in appreciation of their advice and assistance during our four years.

One of the tables laden with fried chicken and surrounded by seniors.

Students topped for membership into these honorary organizations are recognized as outstanding leaders and scholars. Many hours of work and service to Eastern lie behind those keys and pins that are worn so proudly. These honoraries are a tradition on our campus. Leading a discussion, presiding at a meeting, planning a dance — these hard workers can be depended upon to carry a project through to completion. From the charter members to the present active clubs, the students who have been selected as members have contributed much to Eastern — intellectually and socially.

Times change radically in fifty years — fashions are completely revolutionized — yet students everywhere, now and then, enjoy the everyday goings-on of a college campus. So many little things — when we look back on them — bring back a remembered day or event in all its original clarity. Linger moments for a little "socializing" in the grille — asking the girl in front of you to the campus movie — having a snowball fight in the first snow of the year — caroling before Christmas on a clear, starry night — sitting in the ravine on the first sunny spring day — the chiming of the tower clock, a quick glance at the time — and another class —

Cindy Day and Ja Holiday arrive—late as usual

Arrival on Eastern's campus always proves enchanting. To the newcomers, it is something new and exciting; and to the old stand-bys, it means another nine months of activities to pack away in that book of memories. The vacation was great, but the campus surely looks inviting, and we can hardly wait to get into the swing of things.

WELL! HERE WE ARE

Narley Haley, Jim Hisch, and Cass Hall move into the new dorm

Ann Scudder and Nancy Barker enjoy working together, fixing their new home

After settling in the dorms, our next day provides many opportunities to make new acquaintances and to chance upon old friends. For example, those never-ending registration lines, the song fests around the piano, and lunching in the coterio.

At last! Mr. Nolan is a welcome sight—the last line

GETTING TO KNOW YOU

A good voice is not necessary to sing while Gus plays, here, in the Lobby of the Student Union

Oh, no! Not another line, and this has been such a big day

During the first week or so, the students have many social events to attend. There are teas, the freshman talent show, where the yearlings make their debut, and the very impressive installation of the house councils.

Mrs. Cooper pours tea for Bobby Henderson at the annual tea given for the freshman.

OFF TO A GOOD START

The winners of the fresh talent show are Gus Franklin, who played the piano; Charles Georgi gave a monologue; and Jim Johns sang an old favorite song.

Officers of the Burnam House Council are; president, Virginia Fugate; vice president, Peggy Baker; secretary, Wilma Brammell; treasurer, Nellie Whalen; and out-going president, Jean Walton.

Sometimes we enjoy walking to class

ALL IN A

The second week, we begin classes. The walk to class, the lectures and notes, the lobs, punching classmates to keep them awake, those torturing minutes before the whistle blows, and the long hours of studying, both in the dorm and the library, all become a part of our daily life.

Donna and Peggy get an early start to avoid last minute cramming

DAYS WORK

Just a peep into one of the classrooms

Harriet, you'd better not believe everything Jim is telling you

LOVE BUG BITES

Look, Mrs. Chenault. Doris and Wetsel are holding hands.

What! A gentleman on Eastern's campus. Sandy, did love do that to Bobby?

The student body joins in cheering the "Maroons" to victory

When we think of the fall, we remember football and football leads to homecoming. When we think of homecoming, a jumble of pep rallies, decorating the campus, floats, queens, old grads who watch with envious eyes, the game, and the dance will all go through our minds. Homecoming probably produces more excitement and school spirit than any other campus activity.

HOMECOMING DAY

No one will ever know how many hours of sleep were lost, classes cut, or meetings missed in preparation for this big day. The beautiful day set the stage; the great victory made time spent worth while and the day, a day we'll never forget.

AND ITS SPLENDOR

Jayne Blevins, Daris Everman, Angela Holbrook, Jackie Ray, Betty Carrell, and "Boats" Whitaker, Eastern's representatives, were outstanding among the many majorettes of Kentucky who assembled here for homecoming.

HOMECOMING QUEEN

This year the alumni chase Pat Raker, Carrolltan, to be our stately queen. Her attendants were Billie Sue Click, Martin, and Diane Miller, Tway.

DOGPATCH WAS NEVER LIKE THIS

Each year one of the most exciting dances is the Sadie Hawkins. The girls go wild in trying to get to their favorite "hustle" first. To this big event, the short boys get invited first because, the girls pay according to their dates' height. Everyone dresses dogpatch style and the more outlandish the costumes, the more fun everyone has. We will never forget this vice-versa occasion.

Don't Bunny and Gary make a typical Daisy Mae and Little Abner? Donna and Bernie captured the best dressed award. Who else but Faye and Nelson would be chosen the craziest?

Go, girls, go!

Christmas is ushered in by winter, and Christmas on Eastern's campus will be relived many times in our memories. Two outstanding events for this festive occasion are The Hanging of the Greens and The Messiah. In this way, Eastern helps promote Christmas spirit among its students.

YULETIDE FROLIC

This year the Veterans Club sponsored a Christmas Dance and it was a gala affair. The music of Jim Hurt's band was being broadcast over the air while the dance was in full swing. The dance was quite successful and everyone had a grand evening. This was the first year for this holiday festivity, but we are sure it will become an annual tradition.

Rey and Shirley Hartman are one of the many couples who attended the dance

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the King and Queen of the Christmas Dance. Ja Rene McKendrick, Loyall, and Shirley Taylor, Cynthiana, were chosen to reign.

SNO' WONDERFUL

When snow falls an Eastern's campus, the students regress to their childhood days. Snowballing and sleigh riding are sno' much fun, though. The snow also makes a perfect setting for the Snowball Dance, given every year by the KYMA Club. This year Chuck Carty's band provided the entertainment.

Who's getting the worse end of this deal, Charlie or Lenora?

President O'Donnell crowns Martha Queen of the Snowball Dance as Dan and her court look on.

John Mayer, Charlie Bicknell, John Tweddel, and Chuck Carty playing one of their famous renditions.

SNOWBALL QUEEN

The snowball queen is chosen by the student body from several candidates, and is crowned at the annual Snowball Dance. This year the honor went to Martha Shahan, South Hills, for her personality, popularity and appearance.

BASKETBALL QUEEN

The basketball queen is selected by the student body by penny vote. The queen this year, Phyllis Skaggs, was crowned at the half time of the Murray game by Don Boyer, president of the "E" Club. Phyllis is an attractive freshman from Neon.

Eastern has always been known for its friendly atmosphere. Everywhere on the campus, students greet each other with friendly smiles for there are no strangers. Our foreign students are just as much a part of this daily life as even the Kentuckians. There's no place like Eastern.

Wonder what's so important that Penny Scott, Ernie Rigrish, and Betty Bosshammer must stop on the way to class to discuss.

We have all become very fond of our foreign students; Setsuka Hayaski, Japan, Michiko Kanna, Japan, and Leda Diaz, Cuba.

CAMPUS CHARACTERS

Wilma Brammell, Rita Blackburn, Barbara Jo Guinchigliani, and Jim Spurlock conversing away a few minutes between classes. Bet they're talking about that initiation!

The sweetheart couple is chosen at the annual Sweetheart Dance, given by the Progress. This year the honor went to a very well recognized couple on campus, Jonnie Zoochi, Fondée, and Ben Hord, Louisville.

LET ME CALL YOU SWEETHEART

MISS EASTERN

Miss Eastern is considered to be the highest honor bestowed upon an Eastern Co-ed. She is selected by the student body, on the basis of beauty, poise, scholarship and leadership. The co-ed who will represent Eastern at the Mountain Laurel Festival this year is Billie Sue Click, Martin.

MISS POPULARITY

Miss Popularity is chosen by the students on the basis of outstanding personality, popularity, and leadership. Betty Jean McLocklin, Richmond, was the recipient of this honor.

Wake up sleepy head. Here's another big day

HOW TO BE VERY VERY POPULAR

Spending a day with Miss Popularity shows us just what it takes to be very popular. Betty Jean makes every day a busy day but never too busy to take time to enjoy her many friends. Although she lives off campus, Betty Jean spends all of her day and many nights on campus participating in all activities. We all know her by her winning smile and exceptional wit — A day with Miss Popularity.

SPRING IS HERE

When spring arrives, it just seems to give new life to the campus. Everywhere people are gathered outside for tennis, or just for walks, for chats, and to view the now, more beautiful than ever campus.

There's always a scramble to get to the tennis courts first. Looks like Flo Cann and "Sputsy" Teslo beat us all.

Francis Milam, Suzanne Doyle, Solly Rotliffe, and Joe Moore take advantage of the first spring day for a friendly conversation in the ravine.

PROM KING AND QUEEN, 1955

The prom king and queen are chosen by their classmates and crowned at the annual Junior-Senior Prom given by the Junior class. Betty Jean McLacklin, Richmond, and Shirley Taylor, Cynthia, were chosen from a group of several guys and gals.

The march to a future of ? ? ?

At last that big day has come and the seniors are caught in a whirl of events that seem to have no end. Banquets, dinners, baccalaureate, and commencement are but a few of the important activities.

NOT FINISHED- JUST BEGUN

Baccalaureate gives us an inspiration for the days ahead

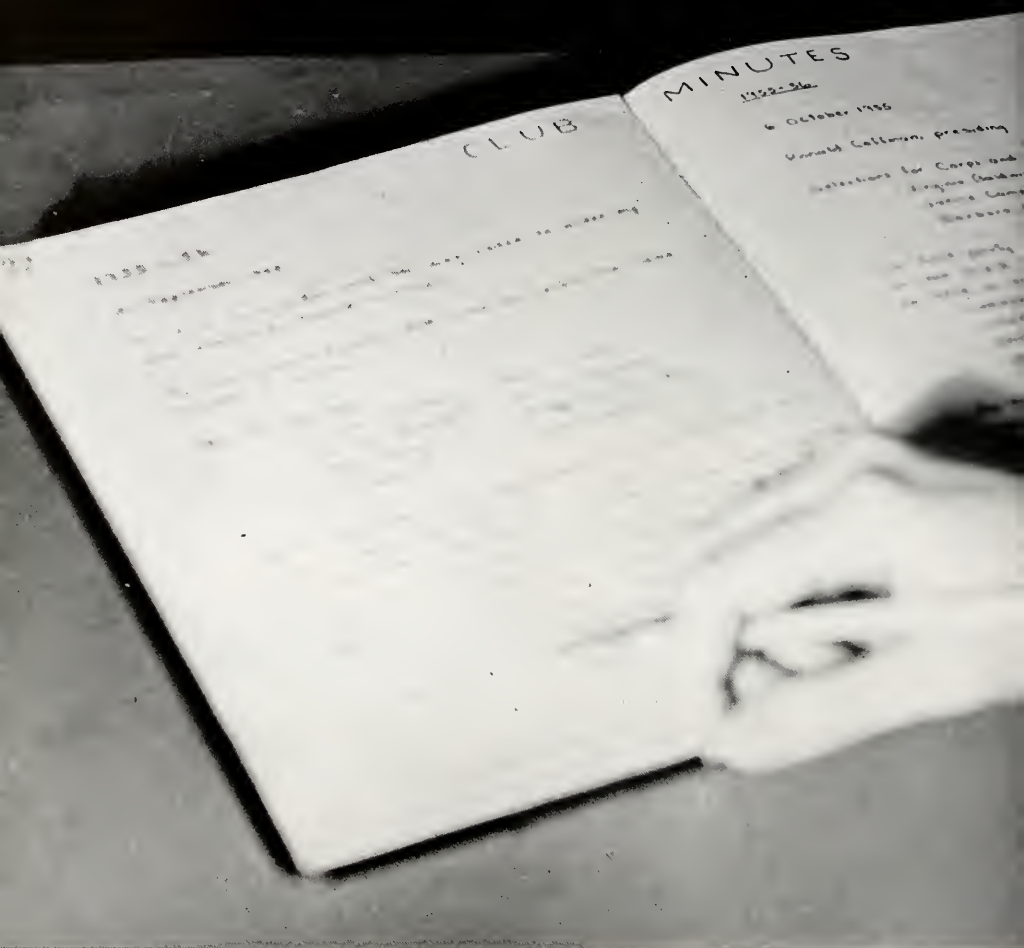

When we entered Eastern four years ago, we all thought this day would never come; but now that it has, we are possessed with mixed emotions of happiness, sorrow, hope, and curiosity. Our thanks to Eastern for the experiences and acquaintances here that have helped prepare us for a bright and useful future.

Valley Conference meetings. Officers are David Senn, president; Jane Elder, vice-president; Mary Joyce Kelly and Gerry Pence, secretaries; and Catherine Nagel, treasurer.

B. S. U.

In presenting a Christian emphasis for the Baptist student at Eastern the B. S. U. promotes participation in all the activities of the local church. Daily evening devotions on campus offer many inspiring and worthwhile moments to the students. Their many activities include a social program with Sunday evening fellowship hours, a Christmas Caffe, and the B. S. U. Banquet. Mission programs including regular preaching, and instruction with extension work in near-by churches. A music program is also provided which includes the B. S. U. choir. Officers for the past year were: Lou McNabb, president; Wanda Cax, secretary-treasurer; Kermit Patterson, faculty advisor; and Marie Claypool, student director.

The purpose of the Letcher County Club is to direct the social interest of students into a common unity and to assist the college in any possible way.

Officers are Bobby Reoch, president; Eugene Correll, vice-president; Sue Collins, secretary; and Nancy Stapleton, treasurer.

County Clans

The students from Harrison County have banded together for the purpose of bettering themselves socially and intellectually. They strive, through their association together, to improve Eastern and themselves. Shirley Taylor is president of this group; Tod Lanter, vice-president; Nancy Hubbard, secretary; and George Helm, treasurer.

The primary purpose of the Floyd County Club is to better Floyd County, especially its education. The formal name of the club is the Floyd County Collegiate Improvement Association of Eastern. The club has participated in numerous activities on campus — their float made a very good showing in the Homecoming parade. The Christmas activities were highlighted by the accumulation of toys and clothes which were distributed to the needy in Floyd County. The club stands at all times to co-operate in promoting the improvement of Eastern. Charles G. Grigsby is president; Jimmie Dick Spurlock, vice-president; Doris Rae Turner, secretary; and James Turner, treasurer.

As a unit, the students from Harlan County strive to promote fellowship and good will throughout the campus. The club assists these students in their educational, recreational, and extra-curricular activities. Officers are Morris Gross, president; Joe Cloud, vice-president; Jo Rene McKendrick, secretary; and Barbara Ball, treasurer.

By These We Are Governed

The Residence Hall Organizations provides for the government and the social direction of the residents of the dormitories, and promotes better scholarship, fellowship, and citizenship at Eastern.

Burnam Hall House Council is composed of student representatives from each wing in Burnam. Virginia Fugate is president; Peggy Baker, vice-president; Wilma Brammell, secretary; and Nellie Whalen, treasurer.

The aim of the Men's Dormitory Council is to act as a general governing body for all men residing and visiting in residence halls and barracks and to support the highest standards of conduct among all men in an effort to further the academic achievement of all. Serving as officers are Harold Caudill, president; Robin Wagoner, vice-president; and Harold Smith, secretary-treasurer.

The Student Association and Student Council was formed to foster worthy traditions, encourage high ideals of conduct, promote a richer cultural background, secure within our institution unity, cooperation and mutual understanding and respect, and provide a larger opportunity for the practice of democratic principles. Officers of the Student Council are Richie Norris, president; Harold Breeding, vice-president; Mary Becker, secretary; and David Senn, treasurer.

Little Theatre Club

The Little Theatre Club gives the students practice in the study of presentation of plays and promotes an interest in, and appreciation of, good drama. The club was organized in 1921 by Miss Rucie Miller of the speech department. Major productions by the club for this year are "Juno and the Paycock," after which was given a cast part, "Riders in the Sea," and "The Silver Whistle." Officers are Jerry Taylor, president; Beverly Sexton, vice-president; Ada Ruth Mackey, secretary; Doug Robinson, treasurer; and Sam Hamilton, business manager.

Photo Club

The purpose of the Photo Club is to improve the skills of the amateur cameraman. Members are instructed in the use of different types of cameras, choice of right type of film, and in the development of films. The club helps in printing some of the pictures seen in the Milestone. Officers are Beverly Sexton, president; Sie Mills, vice-president; Betty Lou Hammons, secretary; and Allen Ochsner, treasurer.

The purpose of the Off Campus Women's Club is to unite the off campus women students so that they may be recognized as a group on campus, and bring each woman closer to campus activities. Officers are Joan Dawson, president; Mary Ann Lear, vice-president; Jackie Parke, secretary; and Mary Logan Forbes, treasurer.

Off Campus Club

Student Union Music Council

The council's objective is to promote musical and other cultural activities in the Student Union Building. Activities range from informal dances to recitals and readings for holiday enjoyment. Sunday afternoon programs throughout the year are provided by the council. Officers are Frances Millam, president; Sara Bishop, vice-president; Diane Miller, secretary, and Freeda Waggoner, treasurer. The group is advised by Mrs. Katherine Chenault.

Veterans Club

The objectives of the Veterans Club are to benefit and further the advantages of vets on Eastern's Campus. Social activities include parties and dances, coordinate with all veterans associations within the state and national government. Officers are James Williams, president; William Brawn, vice-president; Harald McConn, secretary; and Henry Combs, treasurer.

World Affairs Club

The purpose of the World Affairs Club is to propagate knowledge pertaining to and stimulate interest in World Affairs. The group strives to promote an intelligent, informed public opinion on international problems. Patti Poyma is president; Roger Alexander, vice-president; Virginia Fugate, secretary; and Karl Weddle, treasurer.

KYMA Club

KYMA Club is composed of campus students interested in stimulating and promoting school spirit. The club is the alumni co-worker on campus and the success of Homecoming relies completely on them. They are also in charge of concessions at the athletic events. The officers are Don Williamson, president; Charlie Broughton, vice-president; Joyce Patterson, secretary; and Barbara Jo Guinchigliona, treasurer.

Big Sisters Club

The purpose of the Big Sisters Club is to better acquaint the freshmen women with Eastern and make them feel at home on the college campus. Many a freshman is saved from homesickness by her thoughtful "big sister." This year's officers are: President, Mitzi Mueller; vice-president, Peggy Baker; and secretary-treasurer, Jane Varble.

The Marching Maroons add a note of color and excitement to all of Eastern's home football games. Whether spelling the traditional "E" or making a difficult formation; the band, lead by Drum Major Ben Hord, entertains the crowd and helps maintain school spirit. The band is directed by G. Gordon Ritter.

If college only had as its purpose to train our minds, we would be poorly developed people to enter the competitive, modern world. Athletics at Eastern have reached their merited place of importance through continuous fair play, good sportsmanship, and clean living. Our athletes desire only the enjoyment of participating on the team — working long and hard to gain the skill and clockwork precision which gives us many a thrill — a hard-won one-point victory — packed stadium and gymnasium — these boys have earned their glory — and have given us, as a school, something of which we can be proud.

Seniors And Honors

Don Boyer, senior guard from Ironton, Ohio; ended his four-year career in a big way against Wofford. He made second string O.V.C. team.

Bob Lenderman, senior quarterback from Mobile, Alabama; holds the Eastern record for the most passes completed in a single game—twelve, and is tied with Roy Kidd for the most touchdown passes thrown in a game—four. Bobby also was a member of the O.V.C. team.

William "Bozo" Castle, senior center from Paintsville and a regular on the team is graduating with a year of eligibility remaining.

Mathias Williams, senior end from Path Fork, finished his four year stint with a fine performance in the Wofford game.

Ernie Rigrish, senior fullback from Portsmouth, Ohio; was the hero of the Wofford game, when his last quarter field goal won the game for Eastern 3-0. Ernie kicked fifteen extra points and one field goal, plus two touchdowns, giving him a thirty point total for season.

Tom Schulte, junior end from Northern Kentucky, made first string on the O.V.C. team. Tom was on the receiving end of seventeen passes and carried a total of 302 yards. Four of these were touchdown passes. Tom also averaged 32.6 yards on nine punts.

Season Resume'

In September, 1955, football officials around the Ohio Valley Conference would have thought it rather absurd if a winning season were discussed concerning Eastern Kentucky's Maroons.

In playing the toughest schedule ever attempted by an Eastern team, the Maroons had only eleven lettermen back from the great '54 outfit, and only two of these lettermen were starters last season. A crop of hard-working freshmen prospects plus a handful of experienced gridders combined to enjoy a season of which they can be proud.

The Maroons opened with an upset 6-6 tie with Taledo. Then, a strong Middle Tennessee team beat the Maroons 21-14 on a freakish pass play. Nevertheless, Eastern rebounded to defeat Murray 21-6, before Tennessee Tech scored twice on two breaks to beat the Maroons 13-7. Then, powerful Omaha won out 20-13 over the Maroons in a re-match of the Tangerine Bowl. The Maroons then snapped their losing habit to defeat Morehead, 35-14, Morris Harvey, 20-6, and Western, 7-0, before Louisville trounced the Richmond Gridders, 45-13. Their 3-0 win over Wofford College closed out a season which was far more successful than had been expected, and gave the Maroons a winning season.

Fred Dorling, head line coach, commented—"The Wofford win was our best showing of the season; in fact, I was very pleased with the Maroons throughout the season."

"Red" Hartman skillfully eluding tackler in the Louisville game.

According to Williamson's Rating System, Eastern's grid team finished 154th in the nation last fall. A total of 566 four-year colleges were ranked.

Here is how Eastern's 1955 opponents were ranked by Williamson—Louisville, 95; Tennessee Tech, 127; Toledo, 129; Murray, 136; Omaha, 144; Wofford, 165; Morris Harvey, 171; Western, 172; and Morehead, 400. So eight of the nine opponents were ranked in the upper third in the nation, which proves that Glenn Presnell's Moroons played a pretty fair "country" schedule, winning five, losing four, and tying one.

Eastern's peppy cheerleaders, who help keep the spirit going in the cheering section at the games, are Jannie Sue Zaachi, Bab Zweigert, Betty June Reed, Ja Rene McKendrick, Barbara Ball, and Rannie Sherrard.

Team Boosters

Two outstanding athletes, Bab Lenderman, and Jack Adams, prove that football and basketball aren't rivals.

BASKETBALL

Since 1946 the Eastern Kentucky basketball team has risen to a position of national prominence. During this period the Maroons have consistently ranked among the top fifty teams in the nation. Sports writers and rival coaches will tell you that the story behind the rapid rise to national acclaim is the man behind the Maroons, Eastern's head coach, Paul McBrayer.

JACK ADAMS

DICK CULBERTSON

HAROLD FRALEY

Senior Lettermen

Jack Adams, a 6-4 forward from London, is a coach's dream (and a coed's too). Adams leaves little to be desired as a basketball player . . . agile, well-coordinated, an exceptional feeder, and able to play any position. Says Coach Paul McBryer, "He is the greatest competitor that I have seen in my twenty-five years of coaching."

Jack is the holder of nine All-Time Scoring Records at Eastern — most points, most free throws attempted, most free throws made, highest point average, most rebounds; in season play. He has four for individual game records—most points, most rebounds, most free throws attempted, and most free throws made. He has made all-tournament team for every tournament he has participated in in his college career.

The Athletics Committee retired his familiar number 40 after the 1955-56 season was completed.

Farewell to Jack — Eastern's greatest.

Dick Culbertson, a 6-2 guard from Columbus, Ohio, is the fastest man on the squad, and one of the hardest drivers ever to perform for the Maroons . . . excellent on defense, too. He is a great outside shot, and a boy who can beat you. He was the second leading scorer on the squad.

Harold Fraley, a 6-6 forward from Sandy Hook, is an excellent jumper, hard driver, and good defensive man. His height will be missed on the boards next season. Harold is one of the few college basketball players without high school experience. He was the first athlete at Eastern to receive the "Distinguished Military Student" citation, which has since been awarded to both Adams and Pellegrinon.

Ronnie Pellegrinon, a 6-0 guard from Portsmouth, Ohio, is a terrific outside shot with a one-hander, as well as a hard driver and a good shot in close. Ronnie's one-hander that connected in the closing seconds to beat Louisville in an overtime was a thrilling play we will not soon forget. Probably Ronnie's biggest game of the season was when he scored twenty-five points in the second half of the Middle Tennessee game to lead the Maroons to victory.

Kenny Davis, a 6-4 forward from Williamsburg, is a fine shot, good rebounder and scrapper. Kenny lettered on the 1952-53 Maroon team that copped the conference championship and went on to the N.C.A.A. Tournament, where he started against Notre Dame. Davis is taking pre-med and plans to enter University of Louisville Medical School after graduation.

Season Resume'

There are those who would say that Eastern had a bad season this year in basketball—there are those who would quickly agree—and there are those who say Eastern had a much better season than the win-loss record indicates.

From Richmand south to Raleigh, N. C.; then to Montgomery, Ala.; north to Taleda; south to Murfreesbara and Cookeville, Tenn.; north to Chicago; south to New Orleans; home, and north to Cincinnati and Dayton for the season wind-up. The Maroons got around this year, played before record crowds, and left every team on the raad something to remember them by — a fight to the finish.

Eastern suffered their ninth loss of this season's campaign upon their second meet with Morehead in early January. The Maroons bounced back in their final week of basketball this season in the three games with teams that are tops in the nation, Louisville — Xavier — and Dayton. All three were N.I.T. bound. Eastern beat Louisville, who later became the winner of the National Invitational Tournament, 86-84; they gave Dayton, runners-up in the N.I.T., an excellent game which showed Eastern as a national basketball power.

Eastern was, is, and will be a powerhouse, regardless of the win-loss record, as long as we have players like Adams, Pellegrinan, and Culbertson; and as long as we have coaches like McBrayer and Kearns; and as long as we have loyal fans like the Eastern students and Richmond townspeople.

"When the Great Scarer comes
To write against your name
He writes not whether you won or lost,
But how you played the game."

Congratulations on a wonderful season, cagers — we're proud of you.

TRACK

Eastern's cindermen finished third in the O.V.C. tournament held this year at Bowling Green. They were third to Morehead and Western. The Maroon sprinters, Jack Torline, Chuck Bell, and Don Daly were out of the tournament due to pulled muscles.

Despite the shortage of men out for track and the number of injuries, the cindermen gave all they had for a season of which they can be proud.

Eastern's Don Hortman broke his own record in the discus throw as the big athlete heaved the discus 139 feet, 5 inches.

THIRD ROW: Bob Schneider, Gary Hoskins, Charles Dickerson, and Jahn Payne.

SWIMMING

Coach Paul Love's Eastern swim team wound up their season February 27 by bowing to Berea College by a 43-41 margin to give them a season record of three wins against two losses.

The mermen will lose three varsity men by graduation — Captain Bob Snively, Bob Schneider, and Bob Kalakowski, whose combined efforts and talents contributed to the victorious outcome of the season.

TENNIS

GOLF

They played T.P.I., U. of L., Centre, and Western, plus the O.V.C. tourney at Cookeville. Ended up fourth in O.V.C. play, but their prospects are looking up for the 1956 season.

This is one team that has no coach, no sponsor, and no captain . . . completely on their own, but in spite of this the golf team is playing a bigger schedule in 1956.

THE MAROONETTES

SECOND ROW: Audrey Horn, Pat Allison, Sandy Harville, Arlene Isaacs, and Florence Conn.

Hockey

Watch out for those hockey sticks, gals!
This game is not kid's play, that's for sure.

The Maroonettes fulfilled a winning season in hockey, having three wins and only one loss. The three victories were over Morehead, 3-0; Berea, 2-0; and University of Kentucky, 3-1. The single loss was to University of Cincinnati, 3-0.

Season's scoring for the four tilts was:

Carol Kidd	4
Elissa Evans	2
Dot Quisenberry	1
Florene Conn	1

The scales were unbalanced for the W. R. A. basketball season. The girls had wins over University of Cincinnati, 44-42—avenging their loss in hackey; and Midway, 40-19.

Three defeats were at the hands of Berea, 55-36; Morehead, 41-36; and the University of Kentucky, 67-29.

The season's individual scoring for the Maralettes ran as follows:

Pat Allison	47
Nancy Batten	11
Carol Kidd	60
Joan Mitchell	43
Dat Quisenberry	22
Betty Jim Ross	4

The Freshman basketball team showed promising results for the season defeating the University of Cincinnati and Morehead "B" teams and losing to the University of Kentucky and the Berea freshmen.

— MILITARY —

Since our Independence, America has been a nation standing for democracy, equality of man, and a free way of life. The armed forces have constantly maintained their vigilance in protecting not only our own country, and the way of life we enjoy here, but has come to the aid of brother nations in time of oppression. The youth of our country have given the supreme gift — their lives — in maintaining freedom and military supremacy. The Reserve Officers Training Corps gives our boys advanced training in military tactics — preparing them to take their place among the honored ranks of those who, day and night, give of themselves that we may enjoy our bounteous freedom.

TWENTY-SIX FEET OF COLOR GUARD

One of the tallest, if not the tallest color guard in the United States. The shortest member is six feet four inches tall. The above cadets hold the cadet rank of corporal and were selected from the corps by Col. Alden O. Hatch on the basis of scholarship, military bearing, and neatness. They are, left to right, Paul B. Sears, Virgil H. Butler, Clayton Stivers, and James E. Kiser.

We, in our caps and gowns, look out on the audience, and think of the past years we have sat there as underclassmen. How lucky they are! We are proud of being graduates — but sad, too, to be leaving all this that we have.
Other places, other people, in our lives will fill, but never quite replace, the friendships and experiences we have had at Eastern.
Don't waste a day of your college life — make every moment count.
And as we rise to go — we think of the other classes who have left this platform before us — as alumni. They, too, began as freshmen, looking toward that far-off day of graduation. Had that day come so soon for them, too?
So we leave to you, the underclassmen, our treasured moments — cherish them — they will be your memories of tomorrow.

Lee Sonders is the hard-working president of this busy class. He is assisted by Tom Burton, vice-president; Billie Sue Click, secretary; and Jim Cheek, treasurer. Mr. Venettozzi sponsors this group. Their biggest project is securing enough funds to give the seniors a Prom — a big success this year.

ALMA MATER

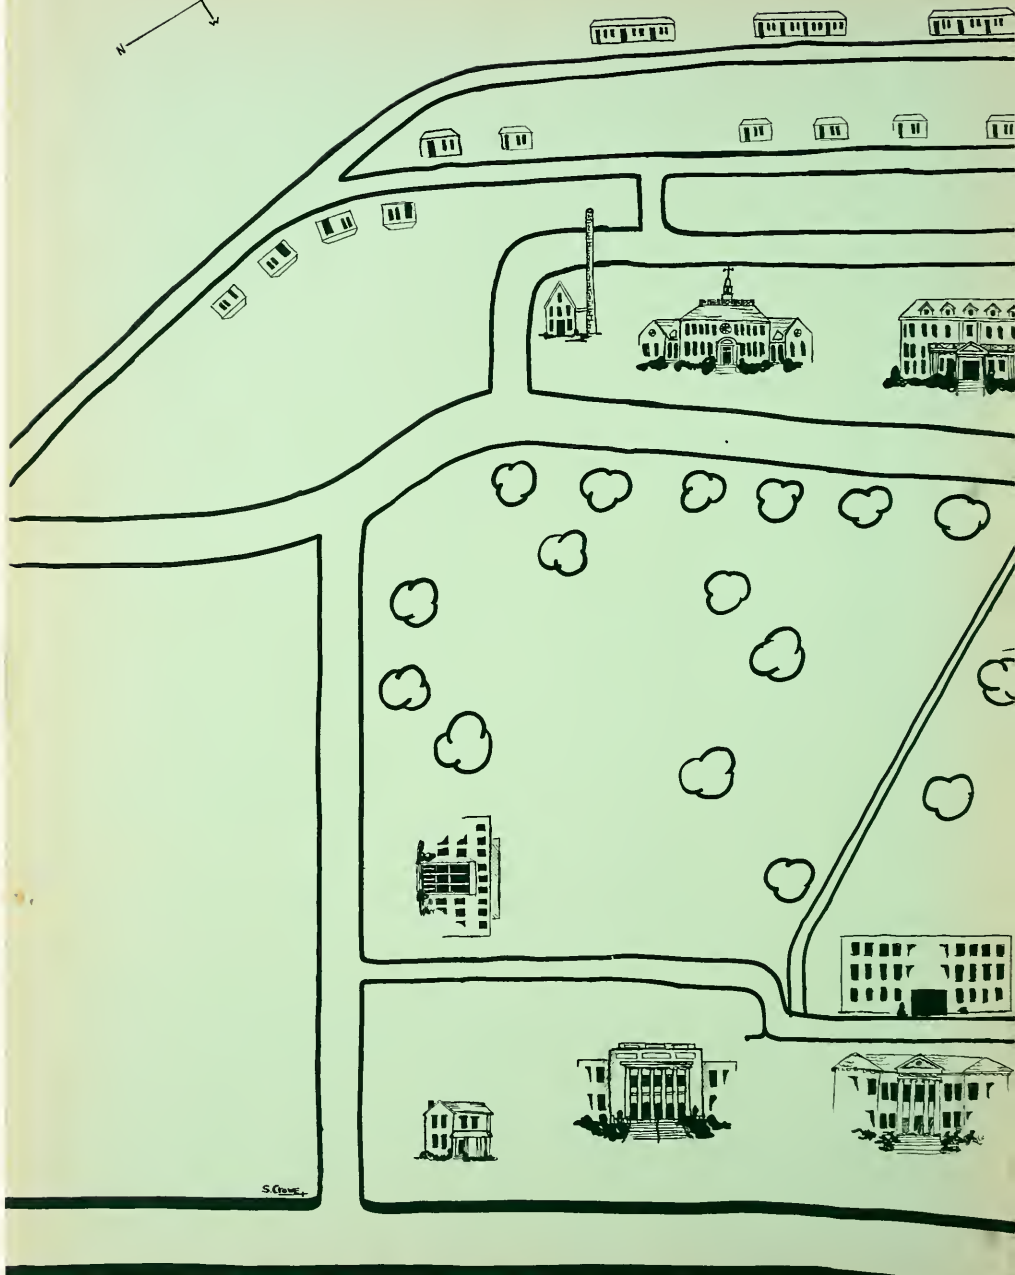

Hail to thee our Alma Mater,
Faithful guide of youth,
Holding high amid the darkness
Duty, light, and truth;
Still above, the skies attend thee,
Still thy stately columns stand,
Still thy sons and daughters love thee
Sing thy praises o'er the land.

All the earth's resplendent beauty
Nature gathered here,
Rolling lawns and trees and grasses
On thy hillsides fair;
Happy days within thy shadow,
Friends and comrades we have won.
Fill our hearts with exaltation
For thy task so nobly done.

When, beloved Alma Mater
Memory recalls
Other days of youth and laughter
In thy gracious holls;
When thy sons and daughters scottered
Turn again to thee,
Still thy lamp is brightly lighting
Us afor, that we may see.
